CASE NO.

Plaintiff,

vs.

SMCP USA, INC. DBA Sandro Paris.

Foreign for Profit Corporation

Defendant,

COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF, AND JURY TRIAL DEMAND

Plaintiff, ALEJANDRO ESPINOZA, through undersigned counsel, sues Defendant, SMCP USA, INC.. a foreign corporation d/b/a SANDRO (hereinafter referred to as “SANDRO”), for declaratory and injunctive relief, and damages, and alleges as follows:

- 1) This action is brought under Title III of the Americans With Disabilities Act (“ADA”), that is codified in 42 U.S.C. §§12181-12189.
- 2) This action is also brought pursuant to 28 C.F.R. Part 36.
- 3) This Court has jurisdiction over this case based on federal question jurisdiction, as provided in 28 U.S.C. §1331 and the provisions of the ADA.
- 4) Furthermore, because this Court has jurisdiction over the ADA claim, the Court has supplementary jurisdiction over Plaintiff’s common law tort claim pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1367.
- 5) Plaintiff is sui juris, and he is disabled as defined by the ADA and ADA Amendments Act of 2008, 42 U.S.C. §12101 (“ADAAA”).
- 6) Defendant, SANDRO is a foreign limited liability company authorized to do business and doing business in the State of Florida.

7) Defendant, SANDRO is a company that sells men's and women's apparel. There is a retail location in Miami-Dade County.

8) Plaintiff seeks declaratory and injunctive relief pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202.

9) Plaintiff desires to prevent discrimination and demands equal access to Defendant's internet website to purchase accessories such as socks and a leather card holder amount other items.

10) Plaintiff also seeks declaratory and injunctive relief for trespass against the Plaintiff's computer. The computer is Plaintiff's personal property, and a claim for trespass attached to same.

11) The Defendant is also liable for compensatory damages to Plaintiff as a result of the trespass to Plaintiff's personal property.

12) The remedies provided under common law for trespass are not exclusive, and same may be sought in connection with suits brought under the ADA.

13) Venue is proper in the Southern District of Florida, Miami-Dade Division, since all events, actions, injuries, and damages complained of herein occurred in the Southern District of Florida.

14) Furthermore, Plaintiff is a resident of Miami-Dade County which falls within the Miami Division of the Southern District of Florida.

15) At all relevant times, Plaintiff is and was visually impaired and has Leber Congenital Amaurosis since birth that substantially impairs Plaintiff's vision.

16) Plaintiff's visual impairment interferes with his day-to-day activities and causes limitations in visualizing their environment. As such, Plaintiff is a member of a protected class under the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12102(1) - (2), the regulations implementing the ADA set forth at 28 CFR §§ 36.101, et seq., and in 42 U.S.C. 3602, §802(h).

17) Plaintiff regularly uses the computer, but he needs the assistance of special software for visually impaired persons. The software that he uses is screen reader software that is readily available commercially.

18) Defendant is a private entity which owns and operates retail locations. The stores are open to the public, and each of Defendant's locations is defined as a "public accommodation" within the meaning of Title III of the ADA because Defendant is a private entity which owns and/or operates "[A] bakery, grocery store, clothing store, hardware store, shopping center, or other sales or rental establishment," per 42 U.S.C. §12181(7)(E) and 28 C.F.R. §36.104(2).

19) Defendant's website is a place of public accommodation per 42 U.S.C. Section 12181(7)(E) because it's an extension of Defendant's brick and mortar stores. The public is able to, among other things, view the products available at defendant's locations, buy apparel and other items through defendant's website, subscribe to Defendant's newsletter, create an account and register to track orders, and learn the story behind Defendant's brand.

20) Since the Defendant's website is a public accommodation, it must comply with the requirements of the ADA. The website cannot discriminate against individuals with disabilities.

21) Plaintiff is a customer of Defendant who is and was interested in purchasing buying accessories through Defendant's website and at Defendant's stores and visiting Defendant's brick and mortar locations.

22) Plaintiff is not able to visit the physical locations without the assistance of a family member or caretaker, so the ability to purchase merchandise on Defendant's website for delivery to his home is important to him as an alternative when he is not able to visit the Defendant's stores.

23) The website also services Defendant's physical stores by providing information on its brand, sales campaigns, fashion shows, and other information that Defendant is interested in communicating to its customers about its physical locations.

24) Since the website allows the public the ability to view what's available at defendant's locations, buy apparel and other items through defendant's website, subscribe to Defendant's newsletter, create an account and register to track orders, and learn the story behind Defendant's brand, the website is an extension of, and gateway to, Defendant's physical stores. By this nexus, the website is characterized as an intangible service, privilege and advantage provided by a place of public accommodation as defined under the ADA, and thus an extension of the services, privileges and advantages made available to the general public by Defendant through its retail brick and mortar stores.

25) Because the public can view and purchase Defendant's merchandise that is also offered for sale by Defendant at its physical stores, subscribe to Defendant's newsletter, create an account and register to track orders, create a wish list, and learn the story behind Defendant's brand, advertising campaigns, and fashion shows, the website is an extension of and gateway to the physical stores, which are places of public accommodation pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12181(7)(E). As such, the website, as an intangible service, privilege and advantage of Defendant's brick and mortar locations, must be fully accessible and in compliance with the ADA, must not discriminate against individuals with disabilities, and must not deny full and equal enjoyment of the same services, privileges and advantages afforded to the general public both online and at the physical locations.

26) At all times material hereto, Defendant was and still is an organization owning and operating the website located at <https://us.sandro-paris.com> Since the website is open through the internet to the public as an extension of the retail stores, by this nexus the website is an intangible service, privilege and advantage of Defendant's brick and mortar locations, and Defendant has subjected itself and the associated website it created and maintains to the requirements of the ADA.

27) Plaintiff is and/or has been a customer who is interested in patronizing, and intends to patronize, Defendant's physical stores purchasing clothing, socks, accessories and other items.

28) The opportunity to shop Defendant's merchandise from his home is an important accommodation for Plaintiff because traveling outside of the home as a visually disabled individual is often a difficult, hazardous, frustrating, confusing, and frightening experience. Defendant has not provided its business information in any other digital format that is accessible for use by blind and visually disabled individuals using screen reader software.

29) Like most consumers, Plaintiff accesses numerous websites at a time to compare merchandise and prices. Plaintiff may look at several dozens of sites to compare features and prices.

30) During the months of April and May, 2022, Plaintiff attempted on several occasions to utilize the website to browse through the merchandise to educate himself as to the merchandise and with the intent to make a purchase through the website or at one of Defendant's physical stores.

31) Places of public accommodation are not just brick-and-mortar structures. The United States Department of Justice and the binding case law increasingly recognize that private entities are providing goods and services to the public through websites that operate as places of public accommodation under Title III.

32) Defendant is required to make reasonable accommodations to its websites for individuals with disabilities to allow them to participate in web-based promotions and obtain goods or services via the Internet just as sighted persons are able to do.

33) Plaintiff utilized Chrome Vox (“Screen Reader Software”) to attempt to purchase clothing on Defendant’s website. However, the Plaintiff was not able to freely and fully use Defendant’s website because it contains access barriers that make it inaccessible to persons with disabilities, and for which there is no reasonable accommodation for the Plaintiff.

34) A person who can see can enjoy the benefits and privileges provided by Defendant’s website that include, but are not limited to viewing the products available at defendant’s locations, purchasing clothing, bags, accessories and other items create an account and register to track orders, and learn the story behind Defendant’s brand.

35) A person who cannot see, like the Plaintiff in this case, cannot go to Defendant’s website and avail themselves of the same privileges. Thus, the Plaintiff has suffered discrimination due to Defendant’s failure to provide a reasonable accommodation for Plaintiff’s disability.

36) The Department of Justice has provided useful guidance regarding website accessibility under the ADA, and the binding and persuasive case law in this district has applied the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (“WCAG”) 2.0 or 2.1 to determine accessibility.

37) Defendant’s website does in fact fail the following WCAG 2.0-AA Compliance standards and it does not provide sufficient alternatives to serve the equivalent purpose:

Violations that prevent users from completing desired action

- Violation: Labels or instructions are not provided when content requires user input.

Note/Proof: The link for learn more and sign in for the Shopperrunner shipping service is not fully described in an audible format to the user (video).

Applicable WCAG 2.1 Standard at Issue: Standard 3.3.2 Labels or Instructions (Level A).

Nature of the Violation: required by WCAG 2.1’s Standard 3.3.2 Labels or Instructions.

- Violation: Labels or instructions are not provided when content requires user input.

Applicable WCAG 2.1 Standard at Issue: Standard 2.1.1 Keyboard (Level A).

Nature of the Violation: required by WCAG 2.1's Standard 2.1.1 Keyboard.

38) Furthermore, Defendant's website does not contain accessibility assistance that would direct a visually impaired person like the Plaintiff to someone who he can contact for assistance, questions, or concerns.

39) Thus, Defendant has not provided full and equal enjoyment of the services, facilities, privileges, advantages, and accommodations provided by and through the website, in contravention of the ADA.

40) On information and belief, Defendant is, and at all times has been, aware of the barriers to its website which prevent individuals with disabilities who are visually impaired from comprehending the information within same, and is also aware of the need to provide access to all persons who visit its site.

41) Plaintiff has no plain, adequate, or complete remedy at law to redress the wrongs alleged in this Complaint, such that this suit for declaratory judgment and injunctive relief is his only means to secure adequate and complete redress from Defendant's discriminatory practices in connection with use of its website.

42) Notice to Defendant is not required because of Defendant's failure to cure the violations.

43) Enforcement of Plaintiff's rights under the ADA is right and just pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202.

44) Plaintiff has retained the undersigned attorneys to represent him in this case, and has agreed to pay them a reasonable fee for their services.

COUNT I – VIOLATION OF THE ADA

45) Plaintiff realleges paragraphs 1 through 44 as if set forth fully herein.

46) Defendant owns and operates the <https://us.sandro-paris.com/en/mens> website, and is a public accommodation subject to the ADA pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §12181(7)(E).

47) Defendant's website is inaccessible to persons with disabilities like the Plaintiff, who is visually impaired. Plaintiff was not able to enjoy full and equal access to the information and services that Defendant has made available to the public on its website, in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12101. et seq., and as prohibited by 42 U.S.C. §12182 et seq.

48) Defendant's website is not in compliance with the ADA.

49) Defendant has made no reasonable accommodation for Plaintiff's disability.

50) A cursory review of a portion of the Defendant's website revealed that the website is not accessible to persons like the Plaintiff that are visually impaired as required by law and for which there is no sufficient alternative on Defendant's website, including:

Violations that prevent users from completing desired action

- Violation: Labels or instructions are not provided when content requires user input.

Note/Proof: The link for learn more and sign in for the Shopper shipping service is not fully described in an audible format to the user (video).

52) As a result, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §12133 and 28 C.F.R. §36.303 to correct the inaccessibility that leads to discrimination against visually impaired persons.
